Thank you to everyone working with us to keep aid workers safe

Spotlight

Happy Holidays from GISF!

In 2022, NGOs have faced unprecedented challenges. In the wake of a multitude of crises driven by climate change, conflict, and famine, aid workers operate in more precarious environments than ever before. Here at GISF we're proud to have worked with key stakeholders across the sector to create a world where NGO staff can safely and sustainably work alongside communities that have been affected by crisis.

We'd like to thank you for engaging with the GISF network by participating in our events, contributing to the development of our research, and sharing your expertise and experiences to facilitate safer operations worldwide.

As we move into 2023, we are excited to continue to support the critical work of NGOs in keeping aid workers safe through our events, research, and peer-support work.
